

AGILOX changes leadership with CEO installation

- David Niedermaier remains in his role as Managing Director and takes on the role of Co-CEO, ensuring continuity and stability.
- Dirk Erlacher returns as Co-CEO, bringing global market expertise from his tenure in Asia.
- Former Co-founder Josef Baumann-Rott steps down from his role as Managing Director and COO after years of success and dedicated leadership.
- Leadership adjustment reinforces AGILOX' commitment to international growth and innovation.

(Neukirchen bei Lambach, April 7, 2025): AGILOX Services GmbH, a leading provider of autonomous mobile robots (AMRs) for material handling, is strengthening its management team to drive continued global growth. Effective April 1, 2025, David Niedermaier and Dirk Erlacher will serve as Co-CEOs of AGILOX Services GmbH.

Experienced leadership for a global future

With this leadership adjustment, AGILOX ensures both continuity and strategic expansion. David Niedermaier, co-founder & CTO and since May 2022 Managing Director, will take on the position of Co-CEO, providing stability in leadership while driving technological innovation and operational excellence.

At the same time, co-founder Dirk Erlacher returns as Co-CEO and takes on the role of Chief Operating Officer (COO). Having previously held a Co-CEO position before leading AGILOX APAC as CEO in China, he brings valuable international experience back to headquarters. His deep understanding of global market dynamics will further strengthen AGILOX' international strategy and operational efficiency.

Dual leadership for balanced growth

AGILOX remains committed to its two-person leadership model, a deliberate strategy to ensure that both technological innovation and market-driven business expansion are equally represented in the company's decision-making. With this structure, AGILOX can continue delivering a cutting-edge automation solution while strengthening its global footprint and responding to evolving industry demands.

Acknowledging contributions Josef Baumann-Rott

As part of this transition, co-founder Josef Baumann-Rott will step down from his role as Managing Director & COO. He will continue in a new role in the group going forward and will be a member of the board. AGILOX expresses deep gratitude for his leadership and contributions, which have played a significant role in the company's success.

"We appreciate the great work that Josef Baumann-Rott has done over the years," said David Niedermaier. Dirk Erlacher added "Josef's leadership has been instrumental in shaping the company's growth."
